SOTHEBY, WILKINSON & HODGE,

Auctioneers of Literary Property & Works illustrative of the Fine Arts,

AT THEIR HOUSE, No. 13, WELLINGTON STREET, STRAND, W.C.

On MONDAY, the 10th day of JUNE, 1901, and four following days,

AT ONE O'CLOCK PRECISELY.

MAY BE VIEWED TWO DAYS PRIOR. CATALOGUES MAY BE HAD.

DRYDEN PRESS: J. DAVY AND SONS, 137, LONG ACRE, LONDON.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

I. The highest bidder to be the buyer ; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the Auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.

II. No person to advance less than 1*s.* ; above five pounds, 2*s.* 6*d.* ; and so on in proportion.

III. In the case of lots upon which there is a reserve, the Auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the seller.

IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10*s.* in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase-money ; in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.

V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale ; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEBY, WILKINSON & HODGE will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the sale the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expense, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. SOTHEBY, WILKINSON & HODGE will have the option of reselling the lots uncleared either by public or private sale without any notice being given to the defaulter.

VI. Every lot will be sold with all faults and errors of description, and on no account will any lot be taken back, nor any allowance made.

VII. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot on any account can be removed during the time of sale.

VIII. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited ; and if any loss is sustained in the reselling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Gentlemen who cannot attend the Sale may have their Commissions faithfully executed by their humble Servants,

THE BARROIS MANUSCRIPTS.

THE Barrois Collection of Manuscripts, the Property of the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Ashburnham, now offered for Sale by Public Auction, was formed by M. Paul Barrois, Deputy for Lille, before the Revolution in Paris in 1848, and was purchased from him en bloc by the late Earl of Ashburnham in 1849.

It originally contained a number of volumes which M. Delisle, Chief Librarian of the Bibliothèque Nationale in Paris, conclusively proved to have belonged at some time or other to that Institution. These Volumes were in 1888, by negotiation with the present Earl of Ashburnham, acquired by France.

It comprises a large number of Manuscripts of great importance and varied interest—historical, theological, literary and artistic. It includes Early French Romances in Verse, many connected with the Arthurian Legends; the Writings of Dante, Boccaccio, Petrarch; Christine de Pisan, Guillaume Lorris, Jehan de Meun, and other Italian and French Writers of the 13th, 14th and 15th Centuries; Early MSS. of the Gospels and Epistles; Codexes of the Greek and Roman Classics; the Early Fathers from St. Augustine; the Schoolmen of the Middle Ages; Old Chroniclers; a long and most valuable Series of Anglo-Norman Charters; Original Letters and Papers relating to Mary Queen of Scots; and others of special English Interest; Modern Documents connected with French and English History, many relating to Flanders and Burgundy.

A large number of the MSS. are very finely illuminated, as the facsimiles in the illustrated Catalogue show, many of which are of very great importance for details of the Costume, Civil, Ecclesiastical, Military and Domestic, as well as the Architecture of the period in which they were written.

Many of the MSS. are in fine historical bindings, some with Ancient Carved Ivory Plaques.

There are also 16th, 17th and 18th Century MSS., exhibiting beautiful specimens of Caligraphy and Artistic Decoration.

SOTHEBY, WILKINSON & HODGE.

BRITTON. (A Treatise in French on the practice of the common law in England, compiled at the commandment and by the authority of King Edward the first). (XIII) small folio

Begins: Edward par la grace deu Roys de engletere e seygneur de yrlande &c. a tuoz ses feals e sugges de Engletere e de yrlande &c.

 MS. of the fourteenth century, on vellum, ff. 82, written in small neat gothic, by an English scribe; long lines, 52 to a full page, the first page having a fine illuminated initial of the Author presenting his Book to K. Edward, with elongations round the margins of grotesques and ivy leaves, ornamental penletters and marginal decorations. Green morocco extra with Grolieresque tooling, g.e. by Thompson of Paris.

"The... French tract under the name of Britton is thought to have been composed under the direction of Edward I. The singular form of it seems to countenance such a supposition; for the contents of the whole book are put into the King's mouth, and the law so delivered has the appearance of being promulgated by the immediate voice of the sovereign. The work.... is attributed by some to John Breton, who was Bishop of Hereford and a Judge; but as he died in the third year of this king's reign, and this treatise takes notice of statutes made in the 13th, the truth of this account is justly doubted. By others it is considered as nothing more than an abridgment of Bracton, with the subsequent alterations that had been made in the law; and that it is called Britton as one of the names of Bracton himself."—History of the English Law.... by John Reeves.

The work has also been attributed to a John Breton, who was a Judge in the first year of Edward II. Note by Paulin Paris pasted in cover.

of the greatest importance, from an historical point of view, and not to be obtained from any other source. The whole are in excellent preservation, with many hundred autographs of the greatest interest and rarity attached to them, bound in 8 large vol. morocco elegant, g. e. by Mackenzie atlas folio. 1269-1771

 The importance and value of this extraordinary series of ancient charters can only be appreciated by inspection. The following is a very brief sketch of some of the more important heads to which they relate. Their extent and value render them worthy of a place in any public or private library, either in this kingdom or in France.

Those relating to Normandy cover a space of history during which period that country was twice conquered by the English, and King John of France, the Duke of Orleans, and other illustrious personages were taken prisoners; there are many letters, warrants, &c., by the Duke of Orleans, during his captivity in England, others relate to the battles of Agincourt and Poictiers, to the taking of Caen, Rouen, and other places; the ransom of King John, his visit to England after his release to redeem his hostages, where he died in the Savoy, the 8th April, 1364. There are also various accounts of different preparations for attempting the invasion of England at several periods, numerous sieges and battles in France &c., of the greatest consequence to the historian. The royal grants, charters, letters, warrants, orders, &c., many of which have autographs and possess beautiful seals; among others will be found many by and relating to Louis IX, Philip III and IV of France, surnamed the Handsome, Louis X, Philip V called the Long, Charles IV, Philip VI, John II, Charles V called the Wise, Charles VI and VII, Louis XI, Charles VIII, Louis XII, Francis I, Henry II, Francis II, Charles IX, Henry III King of Poland, Henry the Great, &c.; also many others by and relating to the Bishop of Toul, Peter Lord of Chambly, Guy of Chatillon Earl of Blois, Earl of Evreux, Robert of Artois Earl of Beaumont, who instigated King Edward III of England to invade France, John de Beaumont Lord of S. Genevieve, Raoul Earl of Eu, Constable of France, the Earl of Guisnez, Edward Chambley, Kt., Raoul de Muelene, Kt., John Duke of Normandy, Lady Eleanor, and John Beaumont her son, Count de Tancarville, Chamberlain of France (who was taken prisoner with King John of France at the battle of Poictiers), Matthew Lord of Ray, W. de Merle Lord of Messy, J. Tiptoft (father to the famous Earl of Worcester), the celebrated Sir John Fastolf (immortalized by Shakespeare in his Merry Wives of Windsor, &c.), W. Marlet, Kt., Lord of Baskerville, the Lord of Holet, Viscount of Orbec, John Earl of Armagnac, lieutenant of the King of France, Ralph Lord of Loupaye, Blanche Queen of Navarre, the Dukes of Anjou and Alençon (suitors for the hand of Queen Elizabeth), John Duke of Berry, Guy Lord of Tremouille, Hubert Lord of Anthels, Louis Duke of Orleans (who was taken prisoner at the battle of Agincourt, October 25th, 1415, and remained prisoner in England twenty-five years), during which time, before and after his ransom, there are many very important letters and documents by him: his grace was ransomed in 1440 on the payment of 300,000 crowns. Others by Sir W. Bardolff, lieutenant to the Earl of Warwick, Governor of Calais, Louis Lord of Crussel, René King of Sicily, Jerusalem, &c., Philip Earl of Flanders, Marshal Coligny, Margaret Duchess of Savoy, Blaise de Montluc, the Marquis de Saluce, Henry Duke of Anjou King of Poland, Catherine de Medicis, John Baudin Lord of Margorre and du Plessis, Duke of Alençon, Louis Earl of Caylas, Louis Duke of Nivernois, Charles Lorraine Duke of Mayne, Cardinal Mazarin, Catherine Duchess of Albret, Marie de Medicis, the great Condé, Philip Mornay Lord of Plessis, and many other illustrious personages, of each nation, who participated on each side during these eventful periods of history. Among others there are also numerous original rolls of the demesnes of the kings of France in Normandy, and other parts of their dominions, others of the various disbursements for the wars, including several expeditions against the English, numerous warrants from the various kings, &c., to their treasurer, for the payment of sums for the same, and also for presents, household services, and other public and private affairs. The household expenses are very numerous, elaborate, and interesting, particularly as illustrative of the splendour of ancient courts, manners, costumes, &c. The accounts of various manors, lands, &c., held for the support of numerous religious houses and other charitable institutions, are very extensive; several detailing the pensions granted by various kings and queens to numerous personages for their various services, in which they are fully detailed; others for the payment of the different officers of state, military and civil, also for the royal household. Others detail most minutely noble presents of jewels and other precious gifts for services performed, which are also fully set out, with the names of the donors and acceptors. Others detail the amounts contributed by various persons throughout the kingdom for the carrying on of the wars, and other services of the crown. Numerous rolls of the men at arms raised by the nobility for the defence of the kingdom; the detail of the expenses of the same, names of the knights, commanders, &c. Many relate to sums given by the crown as marriage portions with the sons and daughters of the nobility and gentry, supporters of the state; dowries for their widows, &c., &c. Various relating to the putting in a state of defence the numerous forts and towns upon the coast, on the invasion by the English, of Normandy, &c. Numerous original subsidies, warrants for collecting the same, receipts from the treasury, quittances, grants of land, and other historical documents relating to the invasion of France by the English, and also by the Emperor Charles V. Many detail the expenses of coronations, baptisms, marriages, royal progresses, &c., &c., with accounts of the gifts to various noble personages upon the occasions; others purchases for New-year's gifts, &c.; the descriptions of the various dresses furnish curious illustration of the costume at this early period. Various letters patent, warrants, and other documents relating to the royal forests and domains of France, with particulars of the duties of the verderers and other officers of the same. The various descriptions of costly jewels, furniture, books, manuscripts, &c., are very interesting, and illustrative of the splendour of ancient times. The letters patent for collecting certain sums, and the orders for the payment of the same, for the ransom of various royal and noble prisoners of war, are particularly interesting. The descriptions of the various royal jewels are very costly and curious, particularly those of Queen Blanche of Navarre, which fell into the hands of the Bretons at Mante. There are various royal grants, and other sums collected for several crusades in the Holy Land, &c. Other subscriptions, grants, &c., for various expeditions against England, Scotland, and the Prince of Wales, &c. The letters patent in acknowledgment of certain sums received by nobles, and of their having done homage, &c., are curious illustrations of the ancient feudal government. The splendid descriptions of jewels, vessels of gold and silver finely chased, presented to various princes, nobles, and others for services rendered, which are fully described, are very numerous throughout the collection. Also the numerous grants of estates and taxes to various personages dispersed throughout. Among the payments noticed as attached to the royal household are many for the various fêtes given at different periods, the sums paid to heralds and others at the tournaments are very curious and fully set out, not forgetting the sums paid to the merry fools, or chasers of melancholy from the court. The splendour of the robes of state at the various ceremonies is particularly noticed, as are the whole of the officers of the household. Various documents relating to the wars between France and Alphonso King of Aragon, their proceedings against Naples, &c., &c. Many others relate to their war against the Turks and other states. There are many rolls and other original documents relating to the trials of persons for high treason, &c.

right hand, INSERTED IN THE UPPER COVER. The MS. has 10 FULL PAGE ILLUMINATIONS, 8 OF WHICH CONSIST OF LARGE AND ELABORATE INITIALS OF INVOLVED SPIRALS OF GOLD AND SILVER, ON PURPLE, BLUE AND GREEN GROUNDS, with details of the same colours, within square frames of sculptured leafy branches, the ends of the letters overlapping the frames, each initial being accompanied by the remaining letters of the word which it commences in smaller gold letters, as follows: (1) A splendid F. followed by R.A.T.R.E.S. (2) P (A.U.L.U.S.) (3) A fine and intricate M. followed by U L T I F A R I E; above the initial, F.R.S. (for Fratres). (4) A very fine S alone within a border of diagonals with dice ornaments, the prevailing tone of which is red; on the reverse of which is (5) a text in cursive gold letters on a purple ground, opposite which is (6) a smaller initial E, commencing "Expurgate," with the remainder of the sentence as in No. 5. (7) Consists of a page of text in gold capitals beginning DIE DOMINI, on blue ground within a tartan border; on the opposite page is (8) a large S followed by U.M. within a border of sculptured leaves. (9) is a remarkable monogram of I N. within an ornamental frame, the upper part of which consists of two arches of Byzantine influence, and (10) is an E with some text in gold cursives, within a border of sculptured leafy branches. These 10 superb illuminations are all of the same size, viz. $7\frac{1}{2}$ by $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. besides which there is a fine initial S followed by U R G E. on a purple ground measuring 5 by 4 in. and 9 rich but smaller ones of similar character throughout the text. The whole of these decorations are similar in style to those in the "Book of Kells," and are probably of Celtic origin with Byzantine influence.

and Prologues, &c. in a smaller letter, rubricated, capitals painted in red. Modern green morocco, ornamented with emblems of the Evangelists, within inlaid circles of blue and yellow, having an IVORY PLAQUE OF OUR LORD in the attitude of blessing, WITH THE SYMBOLS OF THE EVANGELISTS, on a gilt metal ground, INSERTED IN THE COVER. On the first page is written, in a modern hand : "Liber Monasterii sancti Andreæ de Castro Cameraccessio" (Chateau-Cambresis in Hainault). The 11 pages of Canons are written within colonnades of round and triangular arches of involved scrolls and grotesque figures. The text has 8 FULL-PAGE PAINTINGS as follow before the Prologue to St. Matthew (1) Christ and the Woman taken in Adultery : (2) St. Matthew seated writing on a scroll, the Angel (also seated) below : on the opposite page, (3) "Initium est Evangelium Mattheum, Liber Generationis Jhesu Christi filii dd. filii Abraham" in involved letters and scroll ornament : (4) St. Mark writing on a scroll, his emblem, the Lion, below holding part of the scroll in his mouth and paws : (5) St. Luke writing on a scroll, his emblem, the Ox below : (6) Before St. John, a page containing the emblems of the four Evangelists, with the "Lamb of God" in the centre, an angel above and below : opposite which is (7) St. John writing on a scroll, his emblem the Eagle above ; on the reverse of the same page (8) the beginning of the text of St. John's Gospel "In initio erat verbum" in involved letters and spiral ornaments, with figure of an evangelist at each corner. A remarkable large miniature I before the Gospel of St. Mark, which includes a miniature of Christ in the attitude of blessing, extends the whole length of the page ; another of a Q before Quoniam of a nude female figure and grotesques, and 2 others of scroll ornaments. All these are in washed colours, chiefly of red and brown on purple and blue grounds, and all in the style of the Ancient Irish Manuscripts, and the MS. on the whole is of great interest and high importance.

After a summary of the contents of the three parts, the prologue begins:

Qui bien velt entendre a cest livre
Et savoir comment il doit vivre
Et aprendre de le clergie
Dont miex vaudra tote sa vie

Chap. 1. begins:

Quant diex fist le monde premiers
Il ne li estoit nus mestiers.

The work is imperfect, ending fol. 53 b, in the chapter Dou celestial paradis, the last but one of part iii.

Written in double columns. This poem has been attributed to a certain Omons or Osmont, probably the transcriber of the MS. in which his name occurs.

2. A CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE. fol. 54.

Ci sont li anaconte des le commencement dou monde tres que la fin a icest tans dore. Ends, fol. 60 b,—mcclxix. Ci fu prise noschieres (Nocera). . . . 4. ICI COMMENCE LI LIVRE DE PREUVE. (A GENETHLIACK CALENDAR, IN VERSE, FROM THE LATIN OF "RIGAUS.") fol. 88.

Begins: Un livre plain de grant savoir
Me resovient que vel avoir, &c.
Mais de latin en romans metre
Le vuel puis le volrai trametre

Ends, fol. 93 b,—
A ton songe ne pense mie
Car nient ne vaut ce est folie

Written in double columns.

5. LA GENESI DE NOSTRE DAME. (BY PRÊTRE HERMAN. SOMETIMES CALLED LA BIBLE D'HERMAN.)

About 150 lines are wanting at the commencement, begins, fol. 94,—
Asses iplore adans puis sen est retornes
O sa bele moillier puis conversa adans
Par la volente diu & engenra enfans

There is a leaf wanting between fol. 99 and 100. The poem breaks off on fol. 106 a, at the following lines:
Nenil ce dist ruben il neniert paz occis
Ja certes de nos mains neniert ces sans requis
. . . . . .
Il le disoit por ce quil volst quil fust garis
Et desiroit quil fust au pere rendus vis.

Fol. 106 b is blank; ff. 107—134 contain the more ancient poem, No. 6, described hereafter, which appears to have been interpolated by the scribe, as the work of Herman is resumed on fol. 134 b, in the middle of col. 2—the part corresponding in subject with the earlier poem being omitted—as follows:
Diluec dans moyses en .1. desert entra
Cele gent des judex ensamble o lui mena.

The same work is continued to fol. 159 b, where it again breaks off at the following lines:
Li miege sont venut tot droit a la maison
Herodes les regarde a guise de felon
. . . . . .
Quant la sent boillant si ont pris le felon.

Ff. 160—181 contain the poem No. 7, described hereafter, which is interpolated in a similar manner to No. 6; and the original work again resumed, after an omission as before, in the middle of a column
Signor icil traitres sa gent renvoia
Qui a bien acompli ce quil lor commanda
Tos les enfans ocist & tos les decola
Saiches que .1. sol vit en pais nen laissa

LOT 231—continued.

Herman's work is continued to fol. 205, where it ends:

Deproions le signor trestot communaument
Quant au ior dou iuisse seront tuit en present
. . . . . .
Et si nos doinst venir trestot communaument
En son regne lasus qui maint vers oriant
Amen. Explicit.

Begins, fol. 107,— Signor or entendes
Qui dameldieu ames
. . . .
Dans moyses lescrist
Sig diex li aprist

On fol. 108, col. 2, there is a version of Joseph's dream in long lines and a different hand. The poem ends, fol. 134 b, col. 2.
Written in double columns, and in an earlier hand than the preceding works.

7. THE LEGEND OF ST. FANOUEL, THE PRETENDED FATHER OF SAINT ANNE, WITH THE LIVES OF SAINT ANNE AND HER DAUGHTER THE VIRGIN MARY AND THE INFANCY OF OUR SAVIOUR. fol. 160.

Rubric: De nostre dame sainte marie.

Work begins: Se vos voles que ie vos die
De dieu & de sainte marie
. . . . .
Mais par le terdre dun coutel
En la cuise saint famouel

Ends, fol. 181,— La pucele grant ioie en ot
Del miracle que diex fait ot
. . . . .
Et la mist en son paradis
Avec ses drus & ces amis.

Written in double columns, and in a hand of about the same date as No. 6.

 MSS. OF THE THIRTEENTH CENTURY, ON VELLUM, ff. 205. At the foot of several pages are lines, with musical notes, in a somewhat later hand. Modern brown morocco. For an account of Prêtre Herman and his works, see L'Histoire littéraire de la France, tom. xviii, pp. 830—837, where the present volume is mentioned, and an imperfect abstract of the contents given; it is said to have belonged to the ancient Abbey of Cluny. The two poems, Nos. 6 and 7, are complete in themselves, and earlier than the rest of the volume.

 MS. OF THE FOURTEENTH CENTURY, ON VELLUM, ff. 267, written in neat gothic letters, double columns and long lines, 34 to a full page; rubricated, headings of sections in red; capitals painted in blue and red. THIS ORIGINAL AND UNIQUE MS. FORMERLY BELONGED TO THE ABBEY OF ST. MARTIN AT TOURNAY, and is mentioned by Sanderus, Bibliotheca Belgica Manuscripta, pt. i. pa. 128; it appears to have been brought to England after the dissolution of the abbey, and is described in the Bibliotheca Heberiana, part xi, pa. 81, No. 810. Mr. Heber gave £43 for it from Mr. Nicol's collection. It was sold in the above part of the Heber Library by Mr. Evans, in Feb. 1836, for £131 5s., and in 1838, and for some time after, was for sale at the bookseller Crozet's boutique in Paris. Modern boarded hogskin. THIS IMPORTANT AND VALUABLE MS. extra by Thompson of Paris. Quadrio, in his Storia e ragione d'ogni poesia, tom. vi, pp. 581, 582, says: Questo romanzo detto il Guerino di Durazzo, soprannomato Il Meschino . . . fu già in volgar drosa composto da un certo Maestro Andrea Fiorentino. L' incontro che ebbe quest' opera fu quello, che ne fece moltiplicar l' edizioni; e mossi altresi gli stanieri a portarla nelle materne loro favelle, &c. He afterwards speaks of the French translation by Jean Decuchermoys, printed at Lyons in 1530, and at Paris in 1532, as "ben bizzarro e galante," and as containing only a small part of the original. The translation in the present MS. is entirely different from that which has been printed. It is increased to perhaps double the extent of the original romance; the greatest amplification being in the 7th and 8th books, which are equal in volume to the first six altogether. There are erasures at the end of the 4th and at the end of the 8th book; the passages obliterated probably contained the information that the work was translated from the Italian, and the date of the performance. The great popularity of the original is alluded to by Quadrio in the extract quoted above. Tullia d' Aragona turned the prose romance into Italian verse, about the middle of the sixteenth century.

This work is sometimes called La Bible d'Herman. To the present copy is prefixed a modern title : Romanz de Sapience cest la creinte de Diex ; this error has arisen from a misreading of the first line in some of the copies. The MSS. of the work vary considerably ; one in the British Museum, Harl. 222, begins :

Cumenz de Sapience est la tremor de dieu.

There are two leaves of vellum inserted in this copy, containing MS. notes relating to the work. The drawings in this volume are of considerable artistic merit. [See PLATE.]

282.

HORÆ BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS CUM CALENDARIO. A VERY SPLENDIDLY ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (225 ll.), finely written in bold gothic in red and black, by a French scribe and illuminator, the CALENDAR IN FRENCH on 12 leaves within exquisite scroll floreate borders, in which are introduced fabulous monsters and humorous grotesque animals, in some of which the ordinary subjection of beasts to man is reversed, as A Horse riding a man, A Wild Boar hunting his hunter; A Stag is shooting with a bow, A Fox shaves a goat, An Ox plays the bagpipes, An Ass the viola, &c.; in the bottom margins are Circular Miniatures of the Signs of the Zodiac and Occupations of the Month, in an unusually clever and highly-finished manner. THE BORDERS OF THE TEXT ARE ALSO OF A MOST UNUSUAL CHARACTER, having among the conventional leafy scrolls numerous figures of animals, many being treated in a humorous or satirical manner. On the first page, A Pig rides a camel, clothed in a bishop's mitre and a red cloak, A Bear has a shield with an ogre's head on it, and charges another animal with a lance, &c. In other borders occur human figures in various natural occupations, nude human figures and monsters, animals and birds, natural and monstrous; Hunting scenes treated humorously; Two Greyhounds course a hare on crutches, &c. Wild animals are represented in their native conditions, Dragons and other monsters play musical instruments. IN THE TEXT ARE 10 VERY SPLENDID MINIATURES, representing the four Evangelists (St. Matthew wearing spectacles); The Virgin and Child enshrined by angels; The Virgin and Child sitting in a garden outside Jerusalem [See PLATE]; The Salutation; David praying; St. James the Apostle; and St. Bartholomew. There are also hundreds of large and small illuminated ornamental initials with inner borders and details. Purple velvet binding, stamped in mosaics of gold and colours, doublé with purple silk, gold clasps, the catches having a perforated monogram, joints, g. and gauffred edges, by Simier, with his ticket. (XII) 4*to.* SÆC. XV

 A REMARKABLE AND MAGNIFICENT SPECIMEN OF THE HIGHEST STYLE OF THE FRENCH ILLUMINATOR'S ART of the middle of the 15th century. The figures, costumes, landscapes, the unconventional treatment of the borders, all reveal the work of a real artist, untrammelled by custom and revelling in grotesque and humorous ideas. Unfortunately in one respect, but perhaps not in another, the MS. has been left unfinished by the illuminator (not by the scribe), but all the unfinished leaves have indications of the methods adopted in the decoration of the MS., such as gold dots and frames, figures in outline, colourings half filled in, spaces for miniatures, intermediate pages with finished borders and initials only, &c., and we are thus afforded a unique opportunity of studying intimately the progress of the artist in his work.

 AUTOGRAPH UNPUBLISHED MS. OF THE SEVENTEENTH CENTURY, on paper, ff. 392, neatly written. Old olive morocco, with the device of Nostradamus (Notre Dame) on the sides and back. Formerly belonging to Charles de Salincourt, afterwards to Claude François Reboucher, Conseiller au Parlement, 1732; and subsequently to Charles Nodier, by whom there is a manuscript account of the author at the end of the volume, and who has devoted a chapter to the work in his "Melanges tirés d'une petite Bibliothèque," Paris, 1829, pp. 77-89, from which the following extracts are taken:—"Ce précieux volume, ignoré de tous les bibliographes, et dont il n'est pas même fait mention dans la 'Bibliothèque de la France,' où l'on a si curieusement recherché tous les manuscrits qui traitent de notre histoire, est composé ainsi qu'il suit. . . . Un frontispice dessiné à la plume, à l'imitation de la gravure, par César de Nostradamus, et dans lequel est renfermé le titre . . . .; la dédicace au duc de Lorraine, signée Nostradamus (sic), 2 f.; un feuillet blanc; quelques advis singuliers touchant la façon d'escrire un poëme héroique, 19 f. Suivent cinq f., dont les trois premiers et le recto du quatrième sont occupés par des pièces de vers latins et françois à la louange de l'auteur; le verso du dernier étoit destiné à recevoir le portrait du prince auquel le poëme est dédié. Le recto du cinquième feuillet présente le portrait de l'auteur, tracé par lui-même au crayon rouge et légèrement arrêté à la plume; le verso, un sonnet dédicatoire également signé Nostradame. Le reste est rempli par les dix-sept livres du poëme, en 363 f. chiffrés; plus, un sonnet en guise d'épilogue, sur une page non chiffrée, qui termine le volume. . . . Au mérite d'être unique, ce livre joint celui d'une magnifique conservation et d'une condition tout-à-fait curieuse. L'écriture de César de Nostradamus est aussi lisible que la plus belle impression. . . . Il est incroyable, enfin, qu'un livre si peu connu, et qui a passé pendant deux siècles de propriétaire en propriétaire, sans éveiller une seule fois l'attention d'un seul d'entre eux, soit parvenu jusqu'à nous dans un si brillant état de fraicheur et d'integrité. . . . L'Hippiade, toute mauvaise qu'elle est, comme poëme, n'est pas sans mérite sous le rapport des recherches, et je m'étonne qu'elle n'ait pas trouvé un éditeur dans le dix-septième siècle, où l'on s'occupoit avec zèle des illustrations de notre histoire. A combien de belles recherches et d'importantes découvertes n'auroit elle pas donné lieu sur l'état personnel des Croisés, sur leurs familles, leurs alliances, leurs blasons, leurs couleurs, richesses dédaignées par le Tasse et inappréciables aux yeux de nos érudits! La 'Jérusalem' est un diamant pour l'homme sensible et pour le poète; l' 'Hippiade' auroit été une mine inépuisable pour ces éplucheurs de généalogies, qui vieillissoient dans la poussière des chartes et des chroniques." Then follows an analysis of the poem with extracts, &c. M. Barrois purchased the manuscript of Crozet for 1,000 francs, the receipt for which is in the volume, as well as an Autograph Letter of Nostradamus.

ornamental initials. The first leaf is VERY RICHLY ILLUMINATED, representing Charles in the assembly of his nobles; his throne being on a foot-cloth of his arms; his badges and the initials C and M(arguerite of York, his third wife) on the walls. In the border are his arms, and all around, the arms of his several dependencies and alliances. Crimson velvet binding on oaken boards, with gilt bosses and long clasps. Inserted in the volume is a letter from the Duke, with his autograph signature, addressed to the Duc de Bourbon, acknowledging the letter sent to him by Jehan Gon, Bourbon's secretary, respecting the salt duties at Chastelchinon, dated at the Hague, 16 Aug. year not named. This MS. belonged to Messire Marc Anthoine de Choysey, Seigneur de Bargon, Anot, et de la Seigneurie de Pauthenay, who has made use of the blank leaves for inserting a register of the births, deaths, and other occurrences in his family from the middle to the end of the 17th century. It was in the library of M. le P. Bouhier in the year 1721, and appears to have been subsequently in the possession of W. Beckford.

GÉNÉRAL ET GOUVERNEUR EN SA DUCHÉ ET SEIGNEURIE DE GENNES ET SENESCHAL DE THOULOZE. (XV) folio

 MS. OF THE SIXTEENTH CENTURY, ON VELLUM, ff. 121, written in neat lettres bâtardes, long lines, 27 to a full page; with numerous ornamented initials by an Italian hand apparently. The arms of François de Rochechouart, to whom it is dedicated, and for whom it was most likely written, are emblazoned in several places. Old red morocco, full gilt floreate back, broad ornamental floreate borders, g. e. The MS. was afterwards in the Library of the Comte de MacCarthy Reagh, and in that of Geo. Hibbert. The volume contains 127 large initials, each letter in gold on a ground of very delicate pen and ink ornamentation in black and white (a few are in colours); at the head of nearly every initial is an historiated miniature in pen and ink, connected with the subject of the chapter following, which consists largely of biblical, classical, and mythological subjects, many of the figures being drawn nude, and others in the Greek and Roman costume of the period. On the reverse of fol. 2 is a drawing $3\frac{1}{2}$ by $5\frac{1}{2}$, representing the Creation of Adam and Eve, and two other episodes in the Creation, with a $\frac{3}{4}$ border, containing 7 circular drawings of Old Testament subjects, and one of the emblazoned arms of Rochechouart. On reverse of fol. 46 is another representing a Battle of the Romans under Julius Cæsar against the Gauls, $4\frac{3}{4}$ by $5\frac{1}{4}$ in.; and another of a Roman interior connected with the life of Octavius Cæsar. ALL THESE MINIATURES AND INITIALS ARE VERY HIGHLY FINISHED AND ARE EVIDENTLY THE WORK OF A SKILLED ARTIST.
